Get ready for a magical evening of festive cheer, creativity, and holiday shopping at Oxo Tower Wharf's Late Night Shopping Event! Join us to meet the makers behind some of London's most distinctive gifts, enjoy complimentary mulled wine, prosecco, mince pies, and revel in live music and dazzling decorations.

Discover One-of-a-Kind Gifts

Oxo Tower Wharf's designer-maker studios bring you an array of bespoke items: fine jewellery, luxury ceramics, leather goods, and so much more. For those looking to find (or commission) a truly unique gift, this event is a must. "Christmas is about quality, sustainability, and heart. Here, you'll find gifts made with care, craft, and a conscience," says David Ashton, a designer whose studio features ethically sourced diamonds and gemstones.

"Our designer makers at Oxo Tower Wharf put passion into every detail, creating gifts that bring stories and artistry into people's homes," adds Sophie Cain, Design Curator at Oxo Tower Wharf. "This event is a chance to meet the creators and discover something truly special this Christmas."

Shopping Highlights Include:

David Ashton Jewellery: Specialising in handmade jewellery that embodies social, ethical, and environmental integrity, David Ashton is passionate about the philosophy of "buy better, buy less." Explore his stunning range of natural diamond and gemstone pieces, crafted with sustainability at the heart of each design.

Naedlae Hair Studio: Enjoy festive treats with Bonney & France, the talented hairdressing duo offering consultations, skin tests, and eco-friendly hair care innovations at their Open Studio. Discover luxury stocking fillers from top brands, like Olaplex and Sam McKnight.

Grace Lane London: Grace Colquhoun, trained by Alexander McQueen, brings couture quality to her bespoke creations. This season, she teams up with embroidery artist Alexa Makes to showcase hand-beaded, goldwork Christmas tree decorations and scrunchies crafted from wedding dress offcuts—ideal stocking fillers.
